PURPOSE [Revision – June 15, 2015][2]

This Department Order ensures that the optimum level of professionalism is maintained by Department employees and that qualified persons are recruited, selected and employed based upon bona fide occupational qualifications. The Department expects the highest ethical standards of honesty, integrity, impartiality and conduct of its employees in their interaction with inmates, offenders, former inmates/offenders, other employees and the general public. To merit the public's continued respect and confidence, employees shall observe all laws while at and away from work.

Department Order #527, Employment Discrimination and Harassment, as related to "Employee Professionalism, Ethics and Conduct" issues have been placed in a separate Department Order in order to emphasize their importance.

PROCEDURES

1.0 GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES

1.1 All employees shall:

- 1.1.1 Accept responsibility and delegated authority to efficiently and effectively perform their assigned duties in a courteous, considerate and prompt manner.
- 1.1.2 Ensure their personal conduct is in accordance with this Department Order at all times.
- 1.1.3 Immediately report misconduct to their chain of command.
- 1.1.4 Cooperate with Department's official investigations.
- 1.1.5 Ensure they maintain a professional demeanor at all times.
- 1.1.6 Abide by the Department's Code of Ethics, Attachment A.

1.2 Approving authorities shall:

- 1.2.1 Consider knowledge and application of laws, rules, policies and procedures in Managing Accountability and Performance (MAP) file preparation.
- 1.2.2 Ensure their subordinates are held accountable for compliance with this Department Order, and allegations of employee misconduct at any level are thoroughly investigated and resolved.
- 1.2.3 Investigate allegations of misconduct and administer appropriate corrective discipline for sustained employee misconduct, in accordance with Department Order #601, Administrative Investigations and Employee Discipline.
- 1.2.4 Take prompt and appropriate administrative action and/or corrective disciplinary action regarding criminal charges filed against subordinate staff, and related allegations of misconduct.

1.2.5 Seek, when appropriate, the prosecution of employees for:

1.2.5.1 Failing to discharge their custodial responsibility, provided the failure resulted in the escape of an inmate or the serious physical injury or death of another person or inmate, pursuant to Arizona Revised Statute (A.R.S.) §13-2513.

1.2.5.2 Engaging in sexual contact and/or intercourse with inmates or offenders under Department supervision, pursuant to A.R.S. §13-1419 and the Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003.

1.2.5.2.1 Department employees and offenders on release status are exempt from this restriction, provided employees were legally married to the offenders prior to sentencing.

1.2.5.3 Other violations of law.

2.0 STAFF RELATIONSHIPS WITH INMATES, OFFENDERS AND FORMER INMATES/OFFENDERS – Employees shall limit their relationships with inmates and inmates’ families to officially authorized activities. Employees shall refrain from personal relationships with current or former inmates, offenders and inmates’/offenders’ family members. Employees are required at all times to maintain a professional distance from current or former inmates/offenders and deal with them in a courteous and professional manner. Volunteer mentors are permitted to develop personal relationships with current or former inmates/offenders. However, volunteer mentors are to adhere to a mentor/mentee relationship as directed and governed by their affiliated organization. [Revision – September 15, 2017][2]

2.1 Department employees shall:

2.1.1 Avoid being placed in situations that may compromise their professional integrity; compromise security; or cause embarrassment to the Department or the State of Arizona.

2.1.2 Avoid undue familiarity, except as part of an official mentor/mentee relationship with volunteer mentors. [Revision – September 15, 2017]

2.1.3 Report in writing all family relationships with current or former inmates/offenders to their Warden or Bureau Administrator. [Revision – January 10, 2011]

2.1.4 Immediately report, both verbally and in writing, to their immediate supervisor any request to engage in an unauthorized activity, including, but not limited to:

2.1.4.1 Bribery.

2.1.4.2 Attempted bribery.

2.1.4.3 Solicitation of bribery.

2.1.4.4 Any attempt to jeopardize accepted employee-inmate relationships and/or any unauthorized contact.

- 2.1.5 Take corrective action on all inmate rule violations and offender violations of Conditions of Supervision to ensure impartiality and fairness with all inmates and offenders.
- 2.1.6 Address an inmate as “inmate” followed by their surname, for example “Inmate Smith” or “Inmate Jones.” [Revision – September 10, 2011]
- 2.2 Department employees shall not:
 - 2.2.1 Establish personal relationships unless a prior family relationship existed and notification of relationship has been provided to their chain of command. [Revision – September 15, 2017]
 - 2.2.2 Engage in intimate contact or other inappropriate behavior with a current or former inmate/ offender. [Revision – January 10, 2011]
 - 2.2.3 Engage in sexual contact or sexual intercourse with an inmate or offender.
 - 2.2.3.1 Employees and offenders on release status are exempt from section 2.2.2 through 2.2.3 above, provided the employee and offender were married prior to sentencing.
 - 2.2.4 Engage in horseplay or wager with current or former inmates/offenders. [Revision – January 10, 2011]
 - 2.2.5 Enter any area, to which they are not assigned, except as is necessary in the performance of their assigned duties, or with the prior approval of the Warden, Deputy Warden, Bureau Administrator or Inspector General of the involved institution/location.
 - 2.2.6 Take or send, except as required as part of their assigned duties, inmate or offender letters, writings, verbal or written messages, literature or reading matter or any other item.
 - 2.2.7 Have contact or communication beyond their duties.
 - 2.2.8 Give inmates or offenders any food or beverage not part of their job responsibilities including food and beverages from inside or outside institutions.
 - 2.2.9 Barter or deal with current or former inmates/offenders.
 - 2.2.10 Lend, borrow, exchange, give, take or take gifts, presents, cash or property to or from current or former inmates/offenders, or their family/friends.
 - 2.2.11 Deal directly with, be involved in, or sponsor personal activities (e.g., taking inmates or offenders to a show, shopping or other activities) without official approval.

- 2.2.12 Discuss personal information and issues with current or former inmates/offenders or with other employees while in the presence of current or former inmates/offenders, mentors are exempt. [Revision – September 15, 2017][2]
- 2.2.13 Submit verbal or written recommendations on the behalf of current or former inmates/offenders. [Revision – January 10, 2011]
- 2.2.14 Be placed in situations where personal obligation and/or official favors are expected.
- 2.2.15 Periodic rotation of employees in accordance with Department Order #524, Employee Assignments and Staffing may occur to prevent over-familiarity with individual inmates or offenders.
- 2.2.16 The Staff Development and Training Bureau Administrator shall ensure comprehensive training is provided to employees regarding appropriate relations.

3.0 STAFF ARRESTS/NEGATIVE LAW ENFORCEMENT CONTACT

- 3.1 Department employees shall report immediately upon return to work/duty to their supervisor, a designee within their chain of command, or the institution Duty Officer, all contacts with law enforcement authorities that may cause embarrassment to the Department or the State of Arizona by submitting an Information Report (IR), Form 105-2. This includes, but is not limited to: [Revision – November 14, 2014]
 - 3.1.1 Arrests
 - 3.1.2 Citations for other than minor traffic violations
 - 3.1.3 Criminal summons
 - 3.1.4 Indictments
 - 3.1.5 Orders of Protection
 - 3.1.6 Orders Against Harassment
- 3.2 Employees shall submit monthly Information Reports to their supervisors when there has been no case activity or when there are status developments in their case or Order of Protection, including final disposition.
- 3.3 Upon being advised of staff arrests involving subordinates, supervisors shall:
 - 3.3.1 Immediately notify their chain of command, up to the appropriate Division Director/Inspector General or designee.
 - 3.3.2 Submit a Significant Information Report (SIR) detailing employees' actions and law enforcement contact, in accordance with Department Order #105, Information Reporting.
 - 3.3.2.1 Staff arrest SIRs shall serve as notifications to the Administrative Investigations Unit (AIU) to obtain police reports and initiate the administrative investigative process, in accordance with Department Order #601, Administrative Investigations and Employee Discipline.

3.3.2.2 SECTION DELETED [Revision – April 30, 2013]

3.3.3 SECTION DELETED [Revision – April 30, 2013]

3.4 Criminal activity involving Department employees as suspects or victims, but not involving Department operations, shall be immediately reported to local law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction. The location of alleged offenses, on or off state property, is not a factor in whether or not incidents are reported to local law enforcement.

3.4.1 Criminal activity involving Department operations shall be reported to the Criminal Investigations Unit (CIU).

3.4.2 CIU shall coordinate with the local law enforcement agency to ensure incidents are investigated pursuant to A.R.S. §41-1604, B.i.

3.4.3 Questions of alleged offenses involving Department operations shall be resolved by the Inspector General and local law enforcement agencies.

3.4.4 In all cases, coordination with local law enforcement agencies shall be through the Inspector General in accordance with this Department Order.

3.5 Employees shall direct their questions concerning corrective discipline in staff arrest/negative law enforcement contact situations to the Employee Relations Unit.

4.0 SECONDARY EMPLOYMENT – Secondary employment, outside official work hours, is permitted provided no conflict of interest exists between the employee's job responsibilities within the Department and the secondary employment.

4.1 Prior to accepting secondary employment, the employee shall submit a completed Notification of Secondary Employment Form, Form 501-5, to their immediate supervisor.

4.2 The notification shall be reviewed by the employee's immediate supervisor to determine if:

4.2.1 There is a "conflict of interest," in accordance with the criteria listed in section 5.0 of this Department Order.

4.2.2 The secondary employment has an adverse impact on the Department.

4.2.2.1 The secondary employment would impair the employee's capacity to perform the duties and responsibilities of the employee's job in an acceptable manner.

4.3 The supervisor shall recommend or not recommend the secondary employment and forward the completed Notification of Secondary Employment, through the chain of command to the appropriate Warden or Bureau Administrator for final approval.

4.4 The Warden or Bureau Administrator shall review the notification, decide if a conflict of interest does or does not exist, sign the notification and forward the decision to the employee's supervisor.

4.5 Upon receipt of the signed notification form from the Warden or Bureau Administrator, the employee's supervisor shall meet with and advise the employee whether a conflict does or does not exist. If a conflict exists:

4.5.1 The employee shall decide where they want to work; the primary employment with the Department or the secondary employment.

4.5.1.1 The employee shall communicate his/her decision to the immediate supervisor within three work days.

4.5.1.1.1 If the employee refuses to choose between the two jobs, the Department shall take appropriate disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

4.6 The employee may appeal the Warden or Bureau Administrator's decision in accordance with Department Order #517, Employee Grievances.

4.7 If, at any time, the secondary employment adversely impacts on the Department or impairs the employee's capacity to perform the duties and responsibilities of the job, the Department shall advise the employee:

4.7.1 The employee shall be required to resign from the secondary employment within three work days or resign from the Department within three work days.

4.7.2 If a decision is not made within the established time frame or the employee refuses to choose between the two jobs, the immediate supervisor shall take appropriate disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

5.0 CONFLICT OF INTEREST – It is the responsibility of all employees to learn the requirements of, and comply with general conflict of interest statutes, rules and policies; recognize conflict of interest situations and take the required action in each conflict of interest situation.

5.1 Conflict of interest is defined as any activity or conduct prohibited by Arizona Administrative Codes, A.R.S. and Department Orders, to include positions:

5.1.1 Involving investigative responsibilities pertaining to the Department's activities, offender information or contractual agreements.

5.1.2 Requiring the employee to do work that may be construed by the public to be an official act of a Department employee, without prior approval from the Director, Deputy Director or appropriate Division Director.

5.1.3 Preventing or limiting an employee from being able to perform their duties, when such duties are conditions of employment with the Department.

5.1.4 Placing an employee in direct control over an inmate or in positions where an employee is affiliated with an inmate family member.

5.1.5 In which the employee would have direct or indirect financial and/or ownership interest in any contract, sale, purchase or service involving the Department.

5.1.6 Which, directly or indirectly, provide compensation for services rendered on behalf of a contractor or agents/employees of a contractor doing business with the Department pursuant to A.R.S. §31-204, if the duties of the position require the incumbent to:

- 5.1.6.1 Participate in the preparation of a Request for Sealed Proposal or bid evaluation.
- 5.1.6.2 Negotiate or approve a contract.
- 5.1.6.3 Audit a contractor's performance.
- 5.1.6.4 Directly facilitate delivery of a contractor's services to the Department.

5.2 Related Party Transactions – The management of each agency is charged with the responsibility of safeguarding public funds and using resources wisely. A major factor in the fulfillment of this responsibility is to ensure adequate internal controls exist. The monitoring of related party transactions can increase the awareness of and compliance with conflict of interest and related party transaction requirements.

5.2.1 Employees holding the positions below must read the applicable General Accounting Office's (GAO) Related Party Transactions Technical Bulletin and complete the Annual Declaration and Disclosure Form annually, whether or not there is a conflict of interest; and an Amended Form within 15 calendar days of any change in financial interest:

- 5.2.1.1 Director
- 5.2.1.2 Deputy Director
- 5.2.1.3 Division Directors
- 5.2.1.4 Purchasing Manager

5.2.2 The Technical Bulletin and Disclosure Form can be found on the General Accounting Office's website.

6.0 ORGANIZATIONS – Department employees may join and remain members of a Qualifying Employee Organization or an Other Employee Organization and be free from any form of harassment, intimidation, coercion, threats of force or reprisal by the Department and any Employee Organization. It is understood and agreed upon employees have the equal right to refrain from any or all Employee Organization affiliation, and to stay out of or resign from membership free from any form of harassment, intimidation, coercion, threats of force or reprisal. [Revision – September 10, 2011]

6.7 QEO and OEO Representatives may request to use accrued annual leave or compensatory leave to conduct organization business. Use of annual leave or compensatory leave must be approved by the employee’s supervisor and not interfere with agency operations. When a QEO and OEO Representative is on annual leave or compensatory leave for organization business, the representative may provide representation in the workplace, but shall not be considered on duty. [Revision – June 15, 2015][2]

7.0 RESIGNATION OF EMPLOYEES SEEKING ELECTED PUBLIC OFFICE – An employee becomes a “candidate for nomination or election” upon the filing of nomination papers. None of the preliminary steps toward becoming a candidate, including circulating petitions and forming campaign committee, make the employee a “candidate for nomination or election.” A covered state employee seeking elected public office need not resign from his or her state position until filing the nomination papers. However, upon doing so, the employee shall resign his or her state position, pursuant to A.R.S. §41-771. [Revision – June 15, 2015]

CODE OF ETHICS

The Arizona Department of Corrections is committed to a code of ethics that will guide the performance, conduct and behavior of its employees. This code will ensure that our professionalism is reflected in the operation and activities of the Department and is recognized by all interested parties. In this light, the following principles are practiced:

- I shall maintain high standards of honesty, integrity, and impartiality, free from any personal considerations favoritism, or partisan demands.
- I shall be courteous, considerate, and prompt when dealing with the public, realizing that we serve the public.
- I shall maintain mutual respect and professional cooperation in my relationships with other staff members of the Department of Corrections.
- I shall be firm, fair, and consistent in the performance of my duties. I shall treat others with dignity, respect, and compassion and provide humane custody and care, void of all retribution, harassment, or abuse.
- I shall uphold the tenets of the United States Constitution, its amendments, the Arizona Constitution, Federal and State laws, rules and regulations, and policies of the Department.
- Whether on or off duty, in uniform or not, I shall conduct myself in a manner that will not bring discredit or embarrassment to the Department of Corrections and the State of Arizona.
- I shall report without reservation any corrupt or unethical behavior which could affect either inmates, employees, or the integrity of the Department of Corrections.
- I shall not use my official position for personal gain.
- I shall maintain confidentiality of information that has been entrusted to me and designated as such.
- I shall not permit myself to be placed under any kind of personal obligation which could lead any person to expect official favors.
- I shall not accept or solicit from anyone, either directly or indirectly, anything of economic value such as a gift, gratuity, favor, entertainment, or loan, which is or may appear to be, designed to influence my official conduct.
- I will not discriminate against any inmate, employee, or any member of the public on the basis of race, gender, creed, or national origin.
- I will not sexually harass or condone sexual harassment with or against any person.
- I shall maintain the highest standards of personal hygiene, grooming, and neatness while on duty or otherwise representing the Department.
