PURPOSE

This Department Order establishes guidelines for maintaining the Department’s official personnel files at Central Office, Human Resources and Development Group (HRDG), Human Resources Operations Unit and the institution Human Resources offices. Any personnel records other than those identified in this Department Order are unauthorized.

APPLICABILITY

This Department Order does not create a contract for employment between any employee and the Department. Nothing in this Department Order changes the fact that all uncovered employees of the Department are at-will employees and serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority.

This Department Order applies to all Department employees, except for volunteers and contract employees.

PROCEDURES

1.0 PERSONNEL FILES

1.1 Content of Official Personnel Files

1.1.1 Central Office Personnel Files and Institution Personnel Files – When applicable, each of these files shall contain copies, or originals if specified, of the following:

1.1.1.1 A copy of the Arizona Department of Administration (ADOA) Employment Application or resume for the employee’s current position.

1.1.1.2 A copy of all completed paper performance appraisals.

1.1.1.3 Personnel/payroll actions documenting authorized changes in:

- 1.2 Access to Central Office personnel files, institution personnel files and employee performance appraisal files shall be in accordance with Attachment A, Access to Files.
- 1.3 Maintenance/Removal of Documents – The Human Resources Operations Administrator, Deputy Director, Division Directors, Assistant Director, Bureau Administrators or designees, Human Resources Liaisons and supervisors shall ensure:
 - 1.3.1 Official personnel files are current and accurate.
 - 1.3.2 Documents are not placed into official personnel files unless copies of the documents are forwarded to the employee or the employee's signature appears on the document.
 - 1.3.3 Official personnel files are not removed from their approved locations without prior authorization from the Human Resources Operations Administrator.
 - 1.3.3.1 Employees shall not remove their own personnel file from the file's approved location under any circumstances.
 - 1.3.4 Documents are not removed from official personnel files, unless authorized by the Human Resources Operations Administrator
 - 1.3.4.1 An employee may petition a letter of reprimand be removed from his or her official personnel file ONLY if the original letter contains verbiage authorizing the removal, and only after the specified time period identified in the original letter is satisfied. If the letter of reprimand does not have a subsequent removal dated, the letter shall not be removed.

1.3.4.1.1 Requests to remove letters of reprimand shall be made in writing through the chain of command, to the Human Resources Operations Administrator.

1.3.4.1.2 Direct employee requests for removal of letters of reprimand without the Warden's or Administrator's final approval shall not be honored.

1.4 Employee Separations or Transfers/Transfer of Files

1.4.1 When an employee is separated, dismissed or resigns from the Department, the entire institution personnel file shall be kept at the institution's Human Resources Office for a period of two years.

1.4.2 When an employee transfers within the Department, Human Resources staff shall maintain official personnel files and ensure:

1.4.2.1 The Central Office personnel file remains at the Central Office.

1.4.2.2 The institution personnel file is forwarded to the gaining institution Human Resources Office within ten calendar days after transfer.

1.4.2.3 The employee performance appraisal file for the current rating period is forwarded to the new supervisor.

1.4.3 When an employee transfers to another State agency, Human Resources Operations staff shall ensure the official personnel file is processed as follows:

1.4.3.1 The institution personnel file is deactivated and archived at the institution Human Resources Office for a period of two years.

1.4.3.2 The Central Office official personnel file is transferred to the gaining agency within 20 business days of the receipt of the request.

1.5 Court Order or Subpoena – When a personnel file is subpoenaed, the Human Resources Operations staff shall create a redacted version of the personnel file and provide the redacted version to the Legal Services. (See Department Order #201, Legal Services – Records Release.)

1.6 Public Records Request – When a public records request is received, the Human Resources Operations Administrator shall ensure only the following information about a current or former employee is provided to any person making a public records request under Arizona Revised Statute (A.R.S.) Title 39, Chapter 1, Article 2:
