PURPOSE

This Department Order establishes programs and services through the Department's Office of Victim Services, which provides crime victims/survivors with mandated inmate release notifications, resources, and compassionate support throughout inmates' incarceration and Community Supervision. The Office of Victim Services advocates change within the inmate population by illustrating the real impact of crime victims through restorative justice methods of education, victim impact panels, and dedicated services to the community. This Department Order provides services to and advocates for Department employees who become victims of crime in the workplace.

APPLICABILITY

This Department Order is applicable only to the Office of Victim Services and its responsibilities. For information relating to Domestic and Workplace Violence, Domestic Violence Convictions or Redaction of Personal Information see Department Order #523, Domestic and Workplace Violence.

RESPONSIBILITY

The Office of Victim Services is responsible to provide all mandated victim services which are required by law in a corrections setting. The Victim Services Administrator and the Victim Advocate are responsible to coordinate and meet with victim advocacy groups, individuals, and organizations to coordinate services and provide education/training about the Department's Office of Victim Services.

PROCEDURES

1.0 VICTIM NOTIFICATIONS

- 1.1 The Department's Office of Victim Services will receive a Post-Conviction Notification Request (PCNR) form from the victim and/or prosecuting attorney's office after a defendant has been sentenced.
 - 1.1.1 Within 30 calendar days of receiving a PCNR form, the Victim Services staff shall send the victim an acknowledgment of the PCNR form and a notice of the inmate's earliest release date, if the sentence exceeds six months. Arizona Revised Statute (A.R.S.) §13-4413(1)
 - 1.1.1.1 The victim is responsible to fill out the PCNR form and send to the Department to request victims' rights.
 - 1.1.2 Victims' Right Not to Receive Mail – Victims or members of the victim's family or household have the right to request not to receive mail from an inmate on the PCNR form. A.R.S. §13-4411.01
 - 1.1.2.1 The Victim Services staff shall send a notice to the inmate, through the Warden's office, indicating the victim, or members of the victim's family or household have requested to not receive mail. The inmate shall sign the acknowledgement and a copy of signed notice shall be sent back to the Office of Victim Services.

- 1.1.3 Victim's Rights Requests – Only upon receipt of a PCNR form, the Office of Victim Services shall provide a victim notification as follows:
 - 1.1.3.1 Inmate Release - A generated notification letter of the inmate's release shall be sent to the victim, at least 15 days in advance, and called on the day the letter is sent. A.R.S. §13-4413(2)
 - 1.1.3.1.1 As a courtesy, victims may be called on the day of inmate's release.
 - 1.1.3.2 Inmate Death – A generated notification letter of the inmate's death shall be sent to the victim, within 15 days, and called on the day the letter is sent. A.R.S. §13-4413(3)
 - 1.1.3.3 Escape and Subsequent Re-Arrest – A generated notification letter of the inmate's escape and subsequent re-arrest shall be sent to the victim immediately and make every reasonable attempt to call the victim. A.R.S. §13-4412(B)
 - 1.1.3.4 Return to Custody (RTC) – A generated notification letter of the inmate's return to custody shall be sent to the victim and called on the day the letter is sent.
- 1.1.4 Courtesy Victim – Any person requesting services from the Office of Victim Services that shows good cause and is not the legal victim in the criminal case (such as, an individual who may have been a victim of a previous crime; however, they are not the victim of the case in which the inmate is currently serving a sentence) may be provided a notification in accordance with 1.1.3.1 through 1.1.3.4 of this section.
- 1.2 The Office of Victim Services shall send notification(s) to the appropriate agencies, which include the arresting agency, trial judge, and prosecuting attorney in the following manner:
 - 1.2.1 Notice of inmate release through email.
 - 1.2.2 Notice of inmate's death through letter.
 - 1.2.3 Immediate notice of escape and subsequent re-arrest through letter.
- 1.3 Community Corrections – Upon an inmate's release, a victim may have questions/concerns about inmate supervision through community corrections.
 - 1.3.1 Upon request, the Victim Advocate may:
 - 1.3.1.1 Inform the victim of the current Parole Officer's name and contact number.
 - 1.3.1.2 Provide general information regarding supervision and location of release.
 - 1.3.1.3 Inform the Parole Officer of pertinent victim related issues.

1.4 Interstate Compact – When there is a victim listed in the Adult Information Management System (AIMS), the Interstate Compact Unit shall notify the Victim Advocate via email when an inmate has requested a transfer to a different state.

1.4.1 The Victim Advocate may:

1.4.1.1 Call the victim and ask for input with regard to the inmate’s interstate compact request.

1.4.1.2 Respond to the Interstate Compacts Unit with the victim’s input.

1.4.1.3 Take the appropriate action to accommodate the victim’s concerns.

2.0 HEARINGS/LEGAL PROCEEDINGS – Although the Office of Victim Services, services are primarily in the post-conviction stage, support at any relevant legal proceeding may be provided as needed/appropriate. Services to victims are provided only upon request and as a courtesy. Victims are not compelled or required to contact or coordinate with the Office of Victim Services, and may participate on their own or with an independent advocate. Any specific requests, activities or procedures outside the provisions established in this Department Order must be approved by the Director.

2.1 Assistance may include, but are not limited to:

2.1.1 Providing the victim with general information about hearing and relevant victims’ rights.
